Note If you are going to be volunteering for a position working directly with the youth you will be required to provide a background check upon acceptance at interview. Visiting groups and organizations are exempt.

Following information pulled directly from the Missouri State Highway Patrol website:

MACHS Name Search Portal allows any member of the public to request and receive personal identifier (name-based) criminal records checks online. The fee for each personal identifier search through MACHS is $12.00*, plus a small convenience fee. The MACHS Name Search Portal accepts all major credit cards. Click HERE
